Reasons for Allowance

Claims 1-34 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the best prior art of record, McGowan, taken alone or in combination of other references, does not teach or fairly suggest a programmable device having programmable I/O circuitry and programmable logic connected to receive incoming signals from and provide outgoing signals to the I/O circuitry, the programmable device comprising, among other things, a first switch connected between the first pad and the first output buffer to selectively present the first outgoing signal at the first pad; and a second switch connected between the second pad and the first output buffer to selectively present the first outgoing signal at the second pad, as set forth in claim 1; a second plurality of single-ended output buffers, each adapted to present a single-ended output signal at third and fourth output pads; and at least one double-ended output buffer adapted to present a two-leg output signal at the first and third pads; and two or more input receivers adapted to receive input signals from the four pads, as set forth in claim 19; a double-ended output buffer adapted to selectively present a two-leg outgoing signal at first and third pads and adapted to selectively present the two-leg outgoing signal at second and fourth pads, wherein the selection of the first and third pads or the second and fourth pads is mutually exclusive, as set forth in claim 26; a second switch connected between the first pad and the second output buffer to selectively present the second outgoing signal at the first pad, wherein at least one of the first and second output buffers is further adapted to present its outgoing signal at the second pad, as set forth in claim 34.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
